

PS 160 Intro to World Politics
Peer Review Guide, 'Problems of Cooperation' Paper

Author's Name _____ GSI _____ Topic _____

3 concerns I have about my paper that I'd specifically like my peer reviewer to address:

I have already consulted (x) _____ my GSI _____ Sweetland Writing Center _____ SWC peer tutor _____ other reader

Reviewer's Name _____ Reviewer's email _____

	Yes	No	Comments
This paper has a concise, appropriate introduction.
The author defines.... Coordination problems Distribution problems Information problems Enforcement problems
The author uses evidence from the case to support claims about.... Coordination problems Distribution problems Information problems Enforcement problems
The essay contains an argument about the role(s) of the problems, beyond simply identifying their presence/operation.
The paper contains a concluding paragraph – it doesn't just stop.
The author uses paragraphs effectively to separate main ideas in the body of the paper.
Sentences in each paragraph fit together and support a single main point.
The essay has an organization and structure appropriate for its purpose.
The essay contains a minimal amount of superfluous information beyond what is needed for its claims.
The paper is within length guidelines.
The author uses language and word choice effectively to convey ideas.
The author's prose is easy to read.	5	4	3 2 1

Two strengths of this paper are.....

Two weaknesses of this paper are....

The author could fix these problems by.....